

The Montana Racquetball Association is a 501c3 non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of racquetball in all its forms as a lifelong family sport.

All board members and members at large pledge to abide by the following Code of Conduct:

- Abide by all MRA rules, selection procedures, and safety guidelines.
- As an ambassador, exhibit the highest standards of fairness, discipline, ethical behavior, and sportsmanship by mutually respecting and bringing honor to MRA.
- Respect teammates, opponents, officials, spectators, volunteers, and tournament directors.
- Will not disrespect, intimidate, or embarrass other members, teammates, opponents, officials, spectators, volunteers, tournament directors, electronically, and/or through social networking venues (i.e., Facebook, Twitter, texting, blogs or websites, etc.).
- Will not use offensive language, gestures, or aggressive behavior as a response to the decisions made by the referee or tournament director as an expression of frustration and/or self-admonishment.
- Will not engage in any form of discriminatory, verbal, physical or sexual harassment/abuse, fraud, stealing, deception, or dishonesty related to MRA events or activities.
- Will respect and not cause damage to private or public property of others while at an event sanctioned by the MRA.
- Will strive to help the tournament director as needed throughout the tournament (i.e., reffing, finding players, cleanup, teardown, ect).
