New Business:

Due to the Previous treasurer stepping down and following bylaws, the board voted in Cody Matteucci in a remote vote to fulfill the rest of the current treasurer term subject to start immediately and end May 17th, 2025.

Community outreach update:

Rod has been advertising racquetball and its health benefits around the cut bank community, including at a local health fair. He has created content to promote the health benefits of racquetball that he is happy to share with other people to spread around Montana.
